Report on Federal Historic Property Management

The Advisory Council on Historic Preservation sent the fourth triennial report In a Spirit of Stewardship: A Report on Federal Historic Property Management, to the President on February 17, 2015. See <http://www.achp.gov/docs/2015Section3Report.pdf>. The report, required by Executive Order 13287, "Preserve America," summarizes the progress reports submitted in fall 2014 by federal departments and agencies responsible for the stewardship of historic properties on federal lands. It addresses current opportunities and challenges and makes recommendations to improve federal historic preservation outcomes in the context of footprint reduction, energy efficiency and sustainability, climate adaptation, and resiliency initiatives. If you have any questions about the report or would like to request a hard copy, please contact Caroline D. Hall, Assistant Director, Office of Federal Agency Programs at 202-517-0208 or chall@achp.gov or Katry Harris, Program Analyst at 202-517-0213 or kharris@achp.gov.

Grant Application Deadlines

June 1, 2015 National Trust Preservation Funds: Grants from National Trust Preservation Funds (NTPF) are intended to encourage preservation at the local level by providing seed money for preservation projects. These grants help stimulate public discussion, enable local groups to gain the technical expertise needed for particular projects, introduce the public to preservation concepts and techniques, and encourage financial participation by the private sector. Grants generally start at $2,500 and range up to $5,000. The selection process is very competitive. The review process is generally completed within eight weeks of the application deadline, and applicants are notified via email once the review process is complete. For more information and the application click here.

June 15, 2015 Underrepresented Community Grants (National Park Service):

Grant-supported projects include surveys and inventories of historic properties associated with underrepresented communities, as well as the development of nominations to the National Register for specific sites. Eligible applicants are Certified Local Governments, SHPOs, Federally recognized tribes, Alaska Native Organizations, and Native Hawaiian Organizations. For more information, go to <http://www.nps.gov/preservation-grants/community-grants.html>.

The SC Department of Archives and History (SCDAH) is an independent state agency, caretaker to 325 years of government records and historic documents. Our mission is to preserve and promote the documentary and cultural heritage of the Palmetto State through archival care and preservation, records management, public access, preservation of historic sites, and education. The State Historic Preservation Office (SHPO), a program of the SCDAH, encourages and facilitates the responsible stewardship of South Carolina's irreplaceable historic and prehistoric places.

The activity that is the subject of this publication has been financed in part with federal funds from the National Park Service (NPS), U.S. Department of the Interior, and administered by the SCDAAH. However, the contents and opinions do not necessarily reflect the views or policies of NPS or SCDAAH. This program receives federal financial assistance for identification and protection of historic properties. Under Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and the Age Discrimination Act of 1975, as amended, the U. S. Department of the Interior prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, disability or age in its federally assisted programs. If you believe you have been discriminated against in any program, activity, or facility as described above, or if you desire further information please write to: Office of Equal Opportunity, National Park Service, 1849 C Street, N.W., Washington DC 20240.
